PROFILE

Web developer designs and mantains websites for clients. When creating websites, web developers makes sure they're user-friendly and easy to navigate

EXPERIENCE

Trained in Information Technology and Computer Science for 3 years. Web design is essential because it can greatly impact the user's experience on a website. A well-designed website can help attract and retain visitors, increase engagement, and ultimately lead to conversions. A poorly designed website, on the other hand, can frustrate users and dreive them away.
